The event commenced by welcoming the hon'ble chair along with the revered and learned guests to the auditorium. The luminaries, thereafter, paid tribute by lighting the lamps and owering flowers on the idol of Goddess Sawaswati to evoke blessings of the 'Goddess of Knowledge, Art and Wisdom'.

The tone of the Session was laid down by the In-Charge of the Clinic, Mr. Jasdeep Singh in form of the concept note delivered at the very outset of the session. Thereafter, the dignitaries were honoured for their august presence via a felicitation ceremony.

The Director of the Institute Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma in his welcome address commended the efforts of the convening team in organizing the session themed around the current situations of Harassment of Women and Cyber Crime, and providing an active platform for sensitizing those present and involved around the issues and challenges faced in bringing about the coherence of the same.

The revered speaker for the day Prof. (Dr.) Ritu Gupta, National Law University Delhi was graciously called upon for the distinguished talk. Madam commenced the session with the way the guidelines given by the hon'ble Supreme Court in the Vishakha's Case has helped in enactment of The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013. The Act was enacted with the objective to provide protection against sexual harassment of women at workplace and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment and for matter connected therewith or incidental thereto. It defines sexual harassment as unwelcome acts or behavior (whether directly or by implication) namely, physical contact and advances, a demand or request for sexual favors, making sexually colored remarks, showing pornography, any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature. Any act of unwelcome and sexual nature shall be considered as sexual harassment. The speaker also informed the students that an aggrieved woman can file a written complaint to ICC from three months from the date of the incident and in case of series of such incidents within three months from the last such incident. However, any delay in filing the complaint can be condoned by the committee up to further three months. In case of physical or mental incapability of the aggrieved woman, her legal heirs or such other person as described in The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Rules, 2013 may make a complaint. On receiving the complaint the committee, before initiating an inquiry, may take steps to settle the matter between her and the respondent through conciliation and when a settlement is arrived no further inquiry is conducted. If the conciliation fails or any term of the settlement arrived at has not been complied with by the respondent, the committee shall proceed further with the inquiry. In case of filing of false or malicious complaint or false evidence the committee may recommend to the employer or District Officer to take action in accordance with the provisions of service rules or where no such service rules exist, in such manner as prescribed in the Rules. The talk provoked the audience to deliberate upon the current social situation and the way the same is being implemented in the nation.

Thereafter, the session shifted to its next and final leg wherein the revered keynote speaker Dr. Pavan Duggal, Advocate, Supreme Court of India addressed the audience via video conferencing. He laid forth the laws relating to Cyber Crimes in India, and also while deliberating put a lot of emphasis on the legal remedies available for the deprived. The remedial forums were explained in detail to the gathering. The hon'ble speaker also lay light upon the increasing use of the cyber space and urged the audience to put the resources to use in a safe manner. The gathering was witnessed deliberating upon the positives and the negatives of the social and other platforms available.

The sessions were followed by a moderation round wherein the students asked their queries, and the organizers witnessed the same being answered by the speakers in an elaborative and illustrative manner.

Thereafter, Prof. (Dr.) Arun Gupta, Principal of the School of Law addressed the gathering. Wishful and forward thinking was showcased in the talk. The above-mentioned address was followed by a special address by the scholarly Secretary of DLSA Shahadara, Sh. Pranat Kumar Joshi. Each one was recommended to fulfill one's duty with responsibility. Sir emphasized upon the role of youth today as the true wealth of our nation. He also showcased appreciation towards the members of the clinic for organizing an event encircling such crucial concerns.

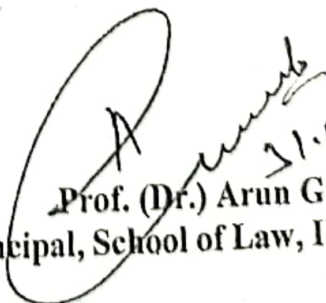

The programme observed its conclusion in the shape of a National Song of India. The attendees stood and paid their respect and gratitude towards our motherland.

REPORT ON BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Blood can save millions of lives, and young people are the hope and future of a safe blood supply in the world. Blood transfusion is crucial for health care systems, which contributes to rise in life expectancy and quality of life of people experiencing acute critical illness or chronic diseases.

Introduction:

A blood donation camp was organized in the institute which was a student initiative and blood donation awareness was carried out at different parts of the institute. For this reason, the study aimed at assessing the knowledge, attitude, and practises among the voluntary donors was carried out to bring out further awareness programs.

How did they organise the Camp?

IIMT, along with 37 NSS Candidates have taken part in this Camp. All the members of NSS were present during the Programme.

The idea to conduct a blood donation camp in the slum of Madanpur Khadar Sangam Vihar in Paharganj , Delhi was initiated by the students of the 2nd year and was implemented on December 27th 2022. For this, the students had also designed posters regarding blood donation and distributed or pasted on the walls of the streets to spread awareness. The activity of blood donation was executed by a group of 19 team members under the guidance of faculty members. Each donor was taken care of by looking after any post donation weakness or nausea & was also provided with refreshments. At the end, feedback was also taken from the donors.

Results:

Out of the 50 donors, there were 21 male (42%) and 29 females (58%). It was recognized that, among 50 donors, 52% of the donors have not donated in the last 2 years while 58% of the donors would voluntarily like to donate blood again. It was seen that 52% of the donors had fear of needles acting as a hindrance for the blood donation.

Conclusion:

Their experience during the whole journey of the initiative was quite enlightening. Looking at the enthusiasm of the donors and the organizing team. The success of the event has further encouraged me to carry out such more awareness projects in the future.

BENEFITS OF BLOOD DONATION:-

- Giving blood can reveal potential health problems
- Giving blood can reduce harmful iron stores
- Giving blood may lower your risk of suffering a heart attack
- Giving blood may reduce your risk of developing cancer
- Giving blood can help your liver stay healthy
- Giving blood can help your mental state

ACTIVITY NO.4

(REPORT ON ROAD SAFETY CAMPAIGN)

Roads are not the place for you to showcase your stunts or experiment with drifting techniques, no matter how empty the roads are. Penalties for traffic rule violations are updated on a regular basis to keep the number of road accidents in check. The main goal of all these is to regulate the flow of vehicles and promote safe travel conditions for all.

Some examples of penalties for traffic violations are a fine of two thousand rupees and imprisonment of up to 3 months if you are found driving without valid insurance for your motor vehicle. Use of vehicles without a license can be charged with a fine of thousand to five thousand rupees. Vehicles running without a permit would have to pay a fine of ten thousand rupees and/or a period of six months of imprisonment or community service.

Some Things You Should Know if You Love to Travel

Ever seen a road signal with an inverted triangle and wondered what it meant? Ever felt confused about what hand signal it was that the one who drove the vehicle in front of you was trying to indicate? Well, these are the kind of situations you should never come across when you are on the road. Here are a few points that you should try to check off your list before you start your journey.

- Keep yourself well-informed about the traffic regulations of the state or country you are travelling to.
- Have contacts of police helplines for emergencies.
- Keep your vehicle serviced and ready along with backup.
- Carry a map so that you know where exactly to go, and to avoid any sort of confusion on your way.

Now, when you are driving, the following are a few things that you should take utmost care of.

- When you wear helmets, do not forget to fasten the straps.
- Use of seat belts by drivers and co-passengers.
- Do not listen to music too loudly to the extent that you cannot hear horns or lose your concentration.
- Be conscious of the road conditions. Go slowly and carefully.

Always be prepared to face any emergency when travelling.

- Carry a first aid kit.
- Keep emergency contacts on speed dial.
- Be ready to help in case you find someone injured.

Their Experience at Road Safety Camps

The campaign they worked at was done in Mandawali, New Delhi near Mother's Convent School so that the children there will be able to learn more about safety rules and regulations. Although my job was to volunteer to teach young children about safety rules, they got to learn more about the safety rules they must follow and how they should teach the younger generations so they can follow these rules while travelling. Children need to be taught the language of road safety before they can understand the rules. For example, names of vehicles, names of street furniture such as pavements and kerbs, and an understanding of fast, slow, looking, listening, and crossing.

I got to know a lot about new traffic rules that has been inculcated recently. These traffic rules were introduced in 2020 and many children were unaware of these rules, some of them were as follows:

- If the driver is caught talking on a mobile phone while driving, then other than having to pay a fine, the police can confiscate the mobile phone for a period of 24 hours. This order was issued by the Nainital high court.
- If any driver violates any of the traffic laws, other than having to pay a fine, the driving license can be cancelled or temporarily suspended by the same RTO where it is issued. This order comes from the Jodhpur bench of the High Court.
- Pune and Bengaluru have banned the use of loud silencers on motorcycles as these cause a lot of noise pollution and even reduce the emission control of the vehicle. They also cause a safety hazard by disturbing others.

The National Practices for Early Childhood Road Safety Education have been developed by early childhood education. The National Practices for Early Childhood Road Safety Education guide early childhood educators and curriculum developers in implementing road safety education programs that maximise a child's learning about road safety in the context of family and community. Overall, it was a great learning experience and it was so fulfilling to be able to help those children who wanted to learn about the safety rules.

ACTIVITY NO. 5
(REPORT ON HEALTH CAMP)

Health Camps are mobile and are conducted in different locations by qualified doctors, nurses, and paramedics and community health workers. In most cases, these health camps are funded by NGO's, Trusts or renowned Hospitals. Health camps are organized to help the poor to get healthcare free of cost. What is Health Camp and what are the Guidelines for Successful Health Camp.

When many hospitals organize free camps, a sizeable number of patients turn up because medical services are given free of cost. Later, these patients do not make it to the hospital for further check-ups because they feel it's too costly to pay a visit. NGOs and Medical Trusts also organize free medical camps and in many cases, people are seen to show up for further treatment in the recommended hospitals because those treatments are entirely funded by the Trust or NGO's.

Before organizing the camp there are a few things you need to consider such as the source of fund, time, the goal of the camp, approximate number of participants you are expecting to attend the camp, number of personnel you need to choose to conduct the health camp such as doctors, nurses, pharmacists etc.

There should be health workers or volunteers to assist these individuals when it comes to handling the participants during activities by maintaining a disciplined environment in the camp. The people whom you will hire must be physically fit to handle the pressures of working in the camp. They should also be prepared to mingle for a span of time with individuals who have different needs and health problems.

Top Requirements to Organize a Free Medical Camp

- Staff members like doctors, nurses, technicians, lab assistants, physiotherapists, dieticians, office assistants, supportive staff like drivers and helpers will be needed.
- Other facilities that should be provided at health camp are safe drinking water, toilets for staff and patients, facilities for waiting area.
- For patient and attendants, water, food packets should be available if decided to supply. hygiene and safety of food should be maintained to prevent transmission of infections.
- Educational material like posters informing about diseases like Cancer, HIV, Kidney problems, Stroke, Mother and Child health, Polio, Immunization, Rabies, Prophylaxis should be carried.

My Experience at Health Camps

The health camp was done at a slum in Janta colony, Subhash Park. Although my role was to help out the doctors, they learnt many other things during this camp. For example, the harsh conditions that these people were living in. For over 10 years they have been staying in 10×8 foot huts with no bathrooms. The children there do not have any footwear and maybe 5% out of 300 kids, actually go to school. Young kids with physical and mental disabilities are left alone at home the whole day while their parents go to work. To earn their livelihood both parents are forced to work and can't afford to stay home with kids.

I was exposed to many new diseases that they had no clue existed. This included nephrotic syndrome and Cerebral palsy. Cerebral palsy occurs because of a brain injury or malfunction before it is fully developed. They was able to converse with a young girl, who was suffering from this disease, with nothing but small gestures. She was really enthusiastic and inspiring and conversing with her was an unforgettable experience. By the end of the camp almost 20 out of 80 kids were found to be malnutrition and suffering some type of chronic infection. This is probably due to their harsh living conditions where they burn materials inside and by their houses. They also don't have toilets so overall it was a very unhygienic and unhealthy environment for anyone to live in.

In terms of oncology, there was one woman whose cervix was abnormal and bleeding. All major cases were referred to Rajiv Gandhi Super Speciality Hospital, the hospital which provided the doctors, for follow-ups and treatment. Overall, it was a great learning experience and it was so fulfilling to be able to help those who really need medical assistance!
