REPORT

Debate is one of the academic activities that give students creative room to express what they feel. The length and breadth of knowledge that they gain through this is simply unparalleled. Thus with this motive Mrs Anjali Nair, Assistant Professor, School of Law under constant support and guidance of hon'ble Vice Principal, School of Law Dr Arun Gupta, organised an intra-batch debate competition for first year students which was held on 7th June 2021 on the topic "Age Disparity existing in our legal system".

Amongst them four teams constituting two students were formulated. Two teams spoke in favour of Age Disparity, and the other two teams spoke against the motion. The four teams were divided into further two sessions and each session will have one winning team. A total of seventy eight students attended the event.

The event was anchored by Aadarsh Pandey who ensured the smooth flow of the event. The coordination amongst the student coordinators ensured a smooth transition of the entire event. Session 1 was moderated by Bhavya Saxena, from Team 'A' Divyani Dubey was Speaker 1 who represented her views in favour of the motion and Speaker 2 Praditya enthusiastically answered the questions put forth by the opposite Team 'B'. Speaker of the day was Dr. Namita Singh Malik, Associate Professor.

The aim for this lecture was to enrich the students with the latest updates of emerging trends on IVF & Surrogacy, to discuss the latest bills on the same with the respective leading case laws.

The organizing team of the guest lecture was comprised of Mr. Jasdeep Singh, Assistant Professor, Ms. Aakanksha and Ms. Kanika Arora, Assistant Professor. The lecture was for two hours which was attended by 56 students. The response received from the students was overwhelming and affirmative.

The session began with the Felicitation of the speaker Dr. Namita Singh Malik by Dr. (Prof.) Anil Parkash Sharma, Director IIMT. She gave the detail picture of the Current Surrogacy Bill 2019 and discussed the pros and cons of the Bill related to 2013. She further discussed the IVF and Surrogacy. It was an interacting Session.

The session started with the introduction of IVF (In-Vitro Fertilisation)- type of artificial reproductive technology (ART). IVF works by using a combination of medicines and surgical procedures to help sperm fertilize an egg and help the fertilised egg implant in Uterus.

It traced its background in India which was firstly introduced by Dr. Subash Mukhopadaya from Kolkata. Due to his practise and experience, India's first test tube baby was born, her name was "Durga" (alias Kanupriya Agarwal) on 3 October, 1978. Then she discussed about the concept of IVF in Health Insurance and about the reasons why couples go for the IVF treatment.

Dr. Malik, then, emphasised on the term Surrogacy by giving different definitions. She further discussed the types of Surrogacy, especially emphasised on fashion Surrogacy to keep body intact of a female. After that she discussed about the Regulation Bill- 2018, ART BILL 2013, Surrogacy bill, 2016 and Surrogacy bill 2019 and reason why People opt for surrogacy. People opt for Surrogacy because of infertility, medical complications, recurrent abortion, single parent, fashion surrogacy etc. Then she told us about the poor condition of surrogate mothers, that they come from poor, disadvantaged background, illiterate, their need to secure the future of their kids and family. Such women are not even aware about their fundamental right to life and personal liberty. Foreign people find India as a country good for the market of commercialised Surrogacy because of the low cost requirement, middlemen clinics etc.

It was ended up to be a brainstorming session. students were made aware about the legality of IVF and surrogacy. Secondly, to provide with the adequate knowledge regarding the Fashion Surrogacy and Commercial surrogacy and its impact thereof. Thirdly, to enhance the knowledge regarding Intra-Country dealing on the subject and its cons thereafter. WORKSHOP

Advocacy Skills and Legal Research Methodology

(18th November, 2019)

Ideal Law Society of the Ideal Institute of Management and Technology under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organized a workshop on "Advocacy Skills and Legal Research Methodology" for the final year students of the School of Law.

Speakers: Prof. (Dr.) T.P.S. Rathore, Principal, School of Law

Dr. Arun Gupta, Vice-Principal, School of Law

Prof. (Dr.) T.P.S. Rathore, Principal, School of Law started the workshop by explaining the importance of 'Legal Research Methodology'. If you are a lawyer, a law student or even someone working in a law office, chances are you hear the term 'legal research' on a daily basis. Contrary to layman belief, it is not limited to finding the law. It is the analyzing of the information that is at one's disposal, that is, finding, understanding and applying of law. Be it legislation, case laws or opinions of the higher courts; legal professionals need to be thorough with the current laws, the practices and the procedures, to be able to fully and efficiently cater to the interests of a client. Relevant scientific knowledge, if any, business practices, and any technical aspects involved in the case, for example, regarding the environment or construction engineering etc., have to be studied and understood. In short, developing a holistic picture of the matter at hand is at the centre of carrying out legal research that is genuinely fruitful. The purpose of such research spans from constructing the arguments a lawyer needs to forward in a court of law to the documents she/he needs to study for a due diligence exercise required to be conducted prior to a transaction. The speaker encouraged the students by making the students understand that if there is one skill that is primary to the practice of law, it is legal research, and that is irrespective of the kind of role one chooses to undertake – whether one is a practicing advocate, a corporate lawyer or a paralegal. In fact, it would not be an exaggeration to say that it is indeed the founding stone on which the whole premise of the legal profession is built. He guided the students for the thesis that they will be working on in their next semester. He wished them best for their future.

Dr. Arun Gupta, Vice-Principal threw light on the fact that an advocate's duty is as important as that of a Judge. Advocates have a large responsibility towards the society. A client's relationship with his/her advocate is underlined by utmost trust. An advocate is expected to act with utmost sincerity and respect. In all professional functions, an advocate should be diligent and his conduct should conform to the requirements of the law by which an advocate plays a vital role in the preservation of society and justice system. An advocate is under an obligation to uphold the rule of law and ensure that the public justice system is enabled to function at its full potential. Any violation of the principles of professional ethics by an advocate is as unfortunate as is unacceptable. Ignoring even a minor violation/misconduct militates against the fundamental foundation of the public justice system. An advocate should be dignified in his dealings to the Court, to his fellow lawyers and to the litigants. He should have integrity in abundance and should never do anything that erodes his credibility. He has a duty to enlighten and encourage the juniors in the profession. An ideal advocate should believe that the legal profession has an element of service also and associate with legal service activities. Most importantly, he should faithfully abide by the standards of professional conduct and etiquette prescribed by the Bar Council of India in Chapter II, Part VI of the Bar Council of India Rules.

The speaker started the session by quoting the definition given by The Law Commission of India, 'Legal education as a science which imparts to students knowledge of certain principles and provisions of law to enable them to enter the legal profession'. He said that Law, legal education and development have become inter-related concepts in modern developing countries. The main function of the legal education is to produce lawyers with social vision. However, in modern times legal education should not only produce lawyers, it should be regarded as a legal instrument for social design. He further quoted Justice Krishna Iyer, "Profession of law is a noble calling and the members of the Legal profession occupy a very high status." He made the students understand that law is the foundation of every society and it develops abiding citizens, lawyers, academicians and aspiring judges.

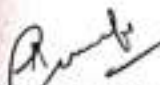

The speaker discussed the history of legal education in our nation which can be traced back to ancient period, where the kings and princes were given teachings about dharma and nyaya. Then the concept of legal representatives came into existence during mughal period. Legal education was in existence even before Indian independence as many of our freedom fighters are from legal background. But, it gained its significance only in post-independence period. Law courses are offered for a term of three years in some traditional universities but it can be pursued only after getting a degree. Later, introduction of five years law courses and establishment of National Law University at Bangalore made legal education quite popular in twenty first century.

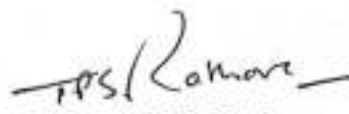

Aim of Legal Education was discussed at length with the students wherein the speaker explained that the same is to train students for legal profession; to educate them to solve the individual client's problems as well as to solve the society's problems in which he lives; to provide a centre where scholars might contribute to the understanding of the law and participate in their growth and improvement; to inculcate them with operative legal rules and to provide them adequate experience to apply these rules and to point the right road for future development. With these words the speaker concluded the session and wished the students for their great future ahead.

Report on Industrial visit in "Bikano"

prepared By: Ayush Mishra

Gen 6

The Report is regarding the industrial visit in "Bikano". The visit was on 18 January 2019. The industry is located in Greater Noida. The students of BBA from IIMT participated in this visit.

I visited the industry and observed, "Bikano" has successfully Transformed Traditional Technique into modern Technology. Recently he built up the water treatment plant which purifies the water when water is used earlier. And the gas speed is 10 lakh kilo calory per hour SCM. There are four line running there:-

- Aloo lacha
- Bhujia
- Peanut
- Moong dal

I observed the two line process of Aloo lacha and peanut process

Process of aloo lacha:-

Lacha ----- Grinding ----- Washer ----- Fry ----- Tumbler ----- Seasoning mix ----- Hopper.

Process of peanuts:-

Peanut ----- fry ----- coating ----- X-ray ----- machine for purify it ----- Seasoning mix ----- Hopper.

When process is over and when they are ready in the form of finished goods then there was a machine packing with "Multi Tracking Machine and Scanner" which not only help in packaging but also help in to find out the damage articles through conveyer belt which helps in packaging, labeling, bar coding by machine itself.

Total Production per day is approximately 150 tones that mean 15000 Kilograms per day. And in one minute the conveyer belt makes 150 packets at the rate of two speeds which depends on order basically, i.e., 30 Speed which makes 100 packets and 40 speed which makes 150 packets and further speeds are decided when there is excess need of heavy order by the dealer.

So, it was a fruitful experience with full of knowledge and learning process.
